

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. This notice takes effect on 10/20/2016 and remains in effect until we replace it.

OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION

The privacy of your medical information is important to us. We understand that your medical information is personal and we are committed to protecting it. We create a record of the care and services you receive at our organization. We need this record to provide you with the quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice will tell you about the ways we may use and share medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain duties we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

A. Law requires us to:

Keep your medical information private.

Give you this notice describing our legal duties, privacy practices, and your rights regarding your medical information.

Follow the terms of the notice that is now in effect.

B. We have the right to:

Change our privacy practices and terms of this notice at any time, provided that the changes are permitted by law.

Make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we keep, including information previously created or received before the changes.

C. Notice of Change to Privacy Practices:

Before we make an important change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION -The following section describes different ways that we use and disclose medical information. Not every use of disclosure will be listed. However, we have listed all of the different ways we are permitted to use and disclose medical information. We will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose not listed below without your specific written authorization. Any specific written authorization you provide may be revoked at any time by writing to us.

A. FOR TREATMENT: We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services.

We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other people who are taking care of you. We may also share medical information about you to other healthcare providers to assist them in treating you.

B. FOR PAYMENT: We may use and disclose your medical information for payment purposes.

C. FOR HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS: We may use and disclose your medical information for our healthcare operations. This might include measuring and improved quality, evaluating the performance of employees, conducting training programs, and getting the accreditation, certificates, licenses and credentials that we need to serve you.

D. APPOINTMENT REMINDERS: We may send you an appointment reminder, if you choose to, via text message or email confirming future appointments. We do not transmit protected health information via text.

ADDITIONAL USES AND DISCLOSURES: In addition to using and disclosing your medical information for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations, we may use and disclose medical information for the following purposes:

NOTIFICATION: Medical information to notify or help notify a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care. We may share information about your location, general condition, or death. If you are pregnant, we will get your permission, if possible before we share, or give you the opportunity to refuse permission.

NOTIFICATION – Continued:

In case of emergency and if you are not able to give or refuse permission, we will share only the health information that is directly necessary for your healthcare, according to our professional judgment. We will also use our professional judgment to make decisions in your best interest about allowing someone to pick up medicine, medical supplies, x-rays or medical information for you. We may share billing and payment information with individuals involved in your care, (such as contacting the parent of a minor child (under 18) and/or a legal Guardian of a patient). We may also contact anyone that you have listed as an emergency contact to get updated contact information regarding you, such as your current (new or updated) address, phone number, etc. if needed. We will limit this contact to provide only basic information.

DISASTER RELIEF: Medical information with a public or private organization or person who can legally assist in disaster relief efforts.

RESEARCH IN LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES: Medical information for research purposes in limited circumstances where the research has been approved by a review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of medical information.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR, CORONER, and MEDICAL EXAMINER: To help them carry out their duties, we may share the medical information of a person who has died with a coroner, medical examiner, funeral director, or an organ procurement organization.

SPECIALIZED GOVERNMENT FUNCTIONS: Subject to certain requirements, we may disclose or use medical information for military personnel and veterans, for national security and intelligence activities, for protective services for the president and others, for medical suitability determinations for the Department of State, for correctional institutions and other law enforcement custodial situations, and for government programs providing public benefits.

COURT ORDERS AND JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS: We may disclose medical information in response to a court or administrative order, subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process, under certain circumstances. Under limited circumstances, such as a court order, warrant, or grand jury subpoena, we may share your medical information with law enforcement officials. We may share limited information with a law enforcement official concerning the medical information of a suspect, fugitive, material witness, crime victim, or missing person. We may share the medical information of an inmate or other person in lawful custody with a law enforcement official or correctional institution under certain circumstances.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIVITIES: As required by law, we may disclose your medical information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, including child abuse or neglect. We may also disclose your medical information to persons subject to jurisdiction of the Food and Drug Administration for purposes of reporting adverse events associated with product defects or problems, to enable product recalls, repairs or replacements, to track products, or to conduct activities required by the Food and Drug Administration. We may also, when we are authorized by law to do so, notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or otherwise be at risk or contracting or spreading a disease or condition.

VICTIMS OF ABUSE, NEGLECT, OR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: We may disclose medical information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may share your medical information if it is necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others. We may share medical information when necessary to help law enforcement officials capture a person who has admitted to being part of a crime or has escaped from legal custody.

WORKER'S COMPENSATION: We may disclose health information when authorized and necessary to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or other similar programs. We may also disclose the contents of your medical record to any Nurse Case Manager involved in your care.

HEALTH OVERSIGHT ACTIVITIES: We may disclose medical information to an agency providing health oversight for oversight activities authorized by law, including audits, civil, administrative, or criminal investigations or proceedings, inspections, licensure or disciplinary actions, or authorized activities.

LAW ENFORCEMENT: Under certain circumstances, we may disclose health information to law enforcement officials. These circumstances include reporting required by certain laws (such as the reporting of certain types of wounds), pursuant to certain subpoenas or court orders, reporting limited information concerning identification and location at the request of law enforcement officials, reports regarding suspected victims of crimes at the request of a law enforcement official, reporting death, crimes on our premises, and crimes in emergencies.

4. YOUR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS: YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

- A. Look at or get copies of your medical information. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format that you request unless it is not practical for us to do so. You must make your request in writing. You may get the form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. You may also request access by sending a letter to the contact person listed at the end of this notice. If you request copies, we will charge you $35.00 for each chart requested up to 50 pages, and an additional .12 cents per page beyond the 50th page. Charges beyond the 50th page may also be subject to a $2.50 per 15 minute processing fee. If you want the copies mailed to you, postage charges will also be incurred. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.
- B. Receive a list of all of the times we or our business associates shared your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations, and other specified exceptions.
- C. Request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your medical information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do so, we will abide by our agreement (except in the case of an emergency).
- D. Request that we communicate with you about your medical information by different means or to different locations. Your request that we communicate your medical information to you by different means or at different locations must be made in writing to the contact person listed at the end of this notice.
- E. Request that we change your medical information. We may deny your request if we did not create the information you want changes. If we accept your request to change the information, we will make reasonable efforts to tell others, including people you name, of the change and to include the changes in any future sharing of that information.
- F. If you have received this notice electronically, and wish to receive a paper copy, you have the right to obtain a paper copy by making a request in writing to the Privacy Officer at our office.

QUESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS:

If you have any questions about this notice or think that we may have violated your privacy rights, please contact us. You may also submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will not retaliate in any way of you choose to file a complaint.
